From simple application debugging to enterprise wide policy deployment, specialized computing resources are becoming crucial to the enterprise Information Systems Managment process. With over 25 years experience in a variety of IT fields, Logiffect is there to tend to all your Information Technology and Information Security needs.